

Parenting "Too Soft"

You cannot give your child too much love, such as hugs and encouragement. Love will never spoil your child. But you can give your child too much freedom or too many toys.

01

Too few rules.

02

Too busy or don't know how to teach your child.

03

Don't discipline
your child.

05

May spoil them by letting them do whatever they want, give them too many toys, or do things for them
that they can do for themselves.

04

Let your child run
wild.
